- If you were appointed or nominated to a new position or a new term of office since 12/31 of the previous year, this section should be current as of your start date.
- If you are a continuing official, this section should be current as of 12/31 of the previous year.
- If you are leaving office, this section should be current as of your end date.
- If you are a candidate, this section should be current as of 12/31 of the year before your election. (Forms may not be filed before 12/1 of the year before your election.)

The information sought in this form is required by Wis. Stat. §§ 19.43 and 19.44, or Supreme Court Rule 60.05. Failure to file a completed form may result in a forfeiture of up to $500. Statements of Economic Interests are open for public inspection. The Wisconsin Ethics Commission will notify you of the identity of any person who examines your Statement. In accordance with Wis. Stat. § 15.04(1)(m), the Wisconsin Ethics Commission states that no personally identifiable information is likely to be used for purposes other than those for which it is collected.

Definitions:

- "Family" or "family member" means your spouse, and any child, stepchild, parent, or parent-in-law who receives more than one-half of his or her support from you or from whom you receive more than one-half of your support.
- "Income" means gross income before deductions and depreciation, from whatever source derived, as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, but excludes dividends and interest.
- A "lobbyist" is an individual who attempts to influence legislation or administrative rules in Wisconsin by communicating with an elected state official, agency official, or legislative employee on another's behalf for pay. For a list of current lobbyists, go to:
<https://lobbying.wi.gov/Who/Lobbyists/2017REG/SearchNames>.

If you need further assistance, please contact Ethics Commission Staff at 608-266-8123 or ethics@wi.gov.

1A: WISCONSIN DEFERRED COMPENSATION PROGRAM INVESTMENTS

a)Funds Available in Wisconsin Deferred Compensation Program. These funds are available to participants in the Wisconsin Deferred Compensation program and many of them are also available for direct purchase, independent of that program. If you held an investment of $5,000 or more in any of these funds – either directly or through the program-- please check the appropriate box. Please report other investments under the next question.

For new officials, information in this section must be current as of the new official's start date or nomination date. For officials who are leaving state service, this section must be current as of the date the official left office. For candidates, or officials filing an annual SEI, the section must be current as of 12/31 of the previous calendar year.

If you do not hold, through the Wisconsin Deferred Compensation program or otherwise, at least $5,000 in any of these three securities, this section can be left blank.

PLEASE NOTE - as of April 17, 2022, the SEI statute has changed. SEI filers no longer have to report defined benefit retirement plans, annuities, money market funds, mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, or exchange-traded notes. These options will still be visible on the 2022 SEI form. These options are NOT visible on the 2023 form. All but 3 options have been removed from section 1A, so your 2023 SEI may look different from the form you filed in previous years.

1B: OTHER INVESTMENTS

b) Other Investments. List stocks, bonds, limited partnerships, and Wisconsin governmental securities in which you and your family's interest was valued at $5,000 or more. Please list securities by name (e.g., ABC Corporation, or Wisconsin Town Municipal Bond, April 2034). Do not just list the type of account or the institution through which the investments are held (e.g., IRA, Merrill Lynch account, etc.).

Include: stocks and stock options, commodity futures contracts, bonds, limited partnerships, securities issued by the State of Wisconsin or by local government entities within Wisconsin, (include any of the aforementioned investments held directly, or through a deferred compensation plan, profit-sharing plan, or pension plan whose investments you or your family directs; in an individual retirement account (IRA); in a trust you or a family member created or of which you or a family member have beneficial use; or held for you by a corporation, partnership, or other entity which you or a family member controls).

DO NOT include: mutual funds, money market funds, exchange traded funds or notes, the Wisconsin retirement system, savings accounts, checking accounts, certificates of deposit, annuities, insurance contracts, securities issued by the federal government or a government outside Wisconsin, securities issued by an organization that does not do any business in Wisconsin, investments held by you or your family whose total interest is valued less than $5,000.

For new officials, information in this section must be current as of the new official's start date or nomination date. For officials who are leaving state service, this section must be current as of the date the official left office. For candidates, or officials filing an annual SEI, the section must be current as of 12/31 of the previous calendar year.

PLEASE NOTE - as of April 17, 2022, the SEI statute has changed. SEI filers no longer have to report defined benefit retirement plans, annuities, money market funds, mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, or exchange-traded notes. These options will still be visible on the 2022 SEI form. They have been removed from the 2023 form, so sections 1A and 1B may look different from what you reported in previous years. The Mutual Funds option will NOT be visible on the 2023 form.
