

Michael W. Grebe
CHAIRMAN

May 25, 2011

You respected Scott Walker's courage, strength of purpose, and devotion to Wisconsin . . . and, like me, it inspired you to contribute generously to his campaign. He is Governor of Wisconsin today because you cared passionately and made his exciting victory possible. So give yourself a pat on the back and as one Governor Walker believer to another, stay involved, because he needs you by his side today more than ever.

As the Chairman of Scott Walker's 2010 Governor's campaign, I'm excited to announce the formation of the new Governor's Club, which is being launched today to provide strong political and financial support for our good friend and Wisconsin's bold leader.

in recognition of your leadership and steadfast support for Governor Walker, I'm inviting you to become a charter member of the Governor's Club. Please review the enclosed brochure: you will learn all about the members-only premiums and benefits that accrue at each leadership station.

All of the protests and intimidating threats we're witnessing in Madison and across the state add a renewed urgency to our goal of getting behind a leader who speaks his mind, stays true to his core convictions, and acts on his strong conservative beliefs.

Governor Walker -- still just Scott to his friends -- does not just lead the way for bold reform when it is easy, he does it all the time . . . because it's the right thing to do. Some politicians are only out for themselves; Scott Walker is only out for Wisconsin. he believes in Wisconsin and we believe in Scott Walker. From Day One, we have seen what his courageous conservative leadership means to the state we love.

Through your financial stewardship, Scott Walker won his last race and through your ongoing involvement, he will win his next one, too . . . which, if the threats by the out-of-state union organizers hold true, could be a costly race full of negative attack ads funded by liberal special interests. So become a founding member today, at either the $2,500 Roundtable level or the $1,000 Governor's Club level.

I will eagerly await your reply. If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to call Mary Stitt at 262-268-6859 or Dan Morse at 608-770-2819.

With my sincere thanks, I remain:

Very truly yours,

Michael W Grebe

Governor Scott Walker

Wisconsin is open for business again!

On January 3, 2011, Scott Walker was inaugurated as Wisconsin's 45th Governor. On his first day in office, Governor Walker called the State Legislature into a special session on job creation.

Since that day, he proposed reform legislation calling for a transformation of the Department of Commerce into a public-private entity named the Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation. This new organization is aimed at promoting the State of Wisconsin as a beacon for economic opportunity. Governor Walker's reform plan includes small business tax relief, frivolous lawsuit reform, and the creation of the Commission on Waste, Fraud, and Abuse, which will aid in balancing Wisconsin's estimated $3.6 billion deficit.

Governor Walker's reforms are a part of his bold vision for Wisconsin that is founded upon making state government more efficient and helping the private sector to create 250,000 jobs by 2015.

Meet Scott Walker

Scott Walker was born on November 2, 1967 to Llewellyn and Patricia Walker in Colorado Springs, Colorado. He spent his earliest years in Plainfield, Iowa, where his father served as the pastor of their local church.

The family moved to Delavan, Wisconsin in 1977 when Scott's father was called to pastor a church there. Scott was involved in sports, band, church, and achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. He remains active in the Boy Scouts of America to this day.

While in high school, Scott was selected to attend the American Legion's Badger Boys State Program in Ripon. There, he was selected as one of two representatives to Boys Nation in Washington D.C. Both of these programs teach young men that the American form of government is stronger and more vital in today's world of struggle and change than ever before. The experience opened Scott's eyes to public service.

In 1986, Scott moved to Milwaukee to attend Marquette University. While still in school, he worked for IBM before leaving to work full-time in financial development for the American Red Cross.

Scott was elected to the State Assembly in 1993. While there, he chaired several committees and authored important pieces of legislation that include: Truth-in-Sentencing, photo identification requirements to vote, and the elimination of the statute of limitations in sexual assault cases.

In 2002, Scott was elected Milwaukee County Executive to reform the scandal-ridden county government. The scandal rocked Milwaukee County to its core and left taxpayers on the hook for millions in pension obligations.

For eight years as County Executive, Scott faithfully kept his promise to spend taxpayer money as if it were his own. He cut the county's debt by 30%, reduced the county workforce by more than 25%, and authored nine consecutive budgets without increasing the property tax levy from the previous year. Despite failing national and state economies, Milwaukee County recorded a budget surplus.

Scott is married to Tonette, and they have two sons, Matt and Alex. They are active in the community and their church.

Yes, Scott I'm pleased to join the Governor's Club!
