

A Dodgeville man was charged with theft, drug possession, and felony strangulation, but he got off easy after Larry Nelson's plea deal.<sup>1</sup>

While he was free, he was accused of committing heinous sex crimes against Wisconsin children.

When a reckless driver hit and killed a bicyclist, Larry Nelson failed to press charges.<sup>2</sup>

The cyclist's widow had to ask: "Not even a traffic ticket was issued. Why?"<sup>3</sup>

When a motorcyclist crashed and left his passenger to die, Larry Nelson's plea deal resulted in the driver getting just one year in jail—even though the police report shows he was drinking and witnesses say that's why he fled the scene.<sup>4</sup>

The victim's mother said afterward: "I feel you are getting off far too easy!"<sup>5</sup>

Call District Attorney
Larry Nelson
at 608-935-0393.

Tell him to put the safety of Iowa County
families first.

Paid for by Wisconsin Alliance for Reform
P.O. Box 1423
Madison, WI 53701

1. Iowa County Case 2011CF000081, 8/4/2011; Rock County Case 2014CF002412, 12/15/2014

2. Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, 8/9/2010

3. <http://media.journalinteractive.com/documents/letter.pdf>; Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, 8/8/2010

4. Iowa County Case 2013CF000135, 10/16/2013; Amended Criminal Complaint, 10/18/2013

5. Iowa County Case 2013CF000135, 10/16/2013; Victim Impact Statement, 7/12/2014

PRSRT STD
U.S. Postage
PAID
Issue Mail

When Iowa County families were counting on him...

District Attorney Larry Nelson turned his back.

