

Where They Stand: Wisconsin

New Candidate Profile

Key Race: Wisconsin State Senate

Your District: Senate District 13

Where They Stand Wisconsin provides information about candidates to voters like you. There is an important election for the Wisconsin State Senate being held on November 6th, and a new candidate will be on your ballot. Democrat Michelle Zahn is running for the State Senate for the first time. You can use this report to get to know your new candidate, Michelle Zahn.

Democrat Michelle Zahn
Profile	Michelle Zahn is mother, grandmother, and lifetime Wisconsin resident. She is running for office because she's fed up with politicians putting themselves and their corporate donors ahead of the people they were elected to represent.
Family	Michelle and her husband, Jim, have been married for 45 years. They have three children, eight grandchildren and one great-grandson. Together they raise beef cattle and sheep.
Career	Michelle is a retired dairy farmer. She owns and operates her own national soap-making and hand woven towel business. At the same time, she has served for over 27 years on various boards of directors in Wisconsin.
Community Service	Michelle is a community leader. She's a former member of the Chamber of Commerce, a former member of the Leadership Wisconsin Board of Directors, a volunteer teacher, and supports community service organizations like the fire and police departments with her products.
Strengths	Not a politician. Self-starter and small business owner. Heavily involved with the community and knows firsthand the importance of supporting Wisconsin agriculture.

We have done our best to represent your candidate's background in a fair and reasonable way. For more detailed information, visit YouShouldKnowWI.org or your candidate's campaign website, ZahnForSenate.com.

We hope this information is useful to you and that you will vote on November 6th!

Where They Stand Wisconsin is a project of Forward Majority Action. Paid for by Forward Majority Action, ForwardMajority.org. Not authorized by any candidate or candidate's agent or committee.